Tanzania small-business checklist

Stock and sales

Opening stock check

- Count the items you plan to sell today.
- Write each item, quantity and shelf location.
- Mark low stock before you place another order.

Record each sale

- Note the date, item and number sold.
- Keep cash and mobile-money receipts together.
- Compare your sales notes with closing stock.

End-of-day review

- Check missing entries while the day is fresh.
- Write one clear action for tomorrow.

Customer records

Keep a simple customer list

- Ask before saving someone's contact details.
- Record only what you need for the order.
- Keep private notes away from shared screens.

Track orders clearly

- Write the item, quantity and agreed collection date.
- Record whether the order is pending or complete.
- Confirm any change with the customer.

Weekly tidy-up

- Remove duplicate entries and correct mistakes.
- Store the notebook or file somewhere safe.
